Foreword

As a tribute to those who have sacrificed so much for our happiness, we, the class of 1955, gratefully dedicate our yearbook to our parents.

Our mothers heard our first words, taught us our first prayers, saw us leave for our first day of school, and helped us when our homework seemed too difficult. Our fathers earned the money for our first pair of shoes, carried us on their shoulders, were pleased at our good report cards, and helped us grow into good Catholics and good citizens.

Although we cannot repay their time or material sacrifices, we hope that we can be the kind of young men and women that our parents wish us to be, and in such a way insure them that their efforts have not been in vain, but that they have co-operated with God to increase the population of our future eternal Home.

Exemplifying our Heavenly Father and our Blessed Mother, our parents have been our best helpers, our most valued counselors, and our most cherished friends throughout childhood, grade school, and high school years.

Dedication

Bishop of Toledo

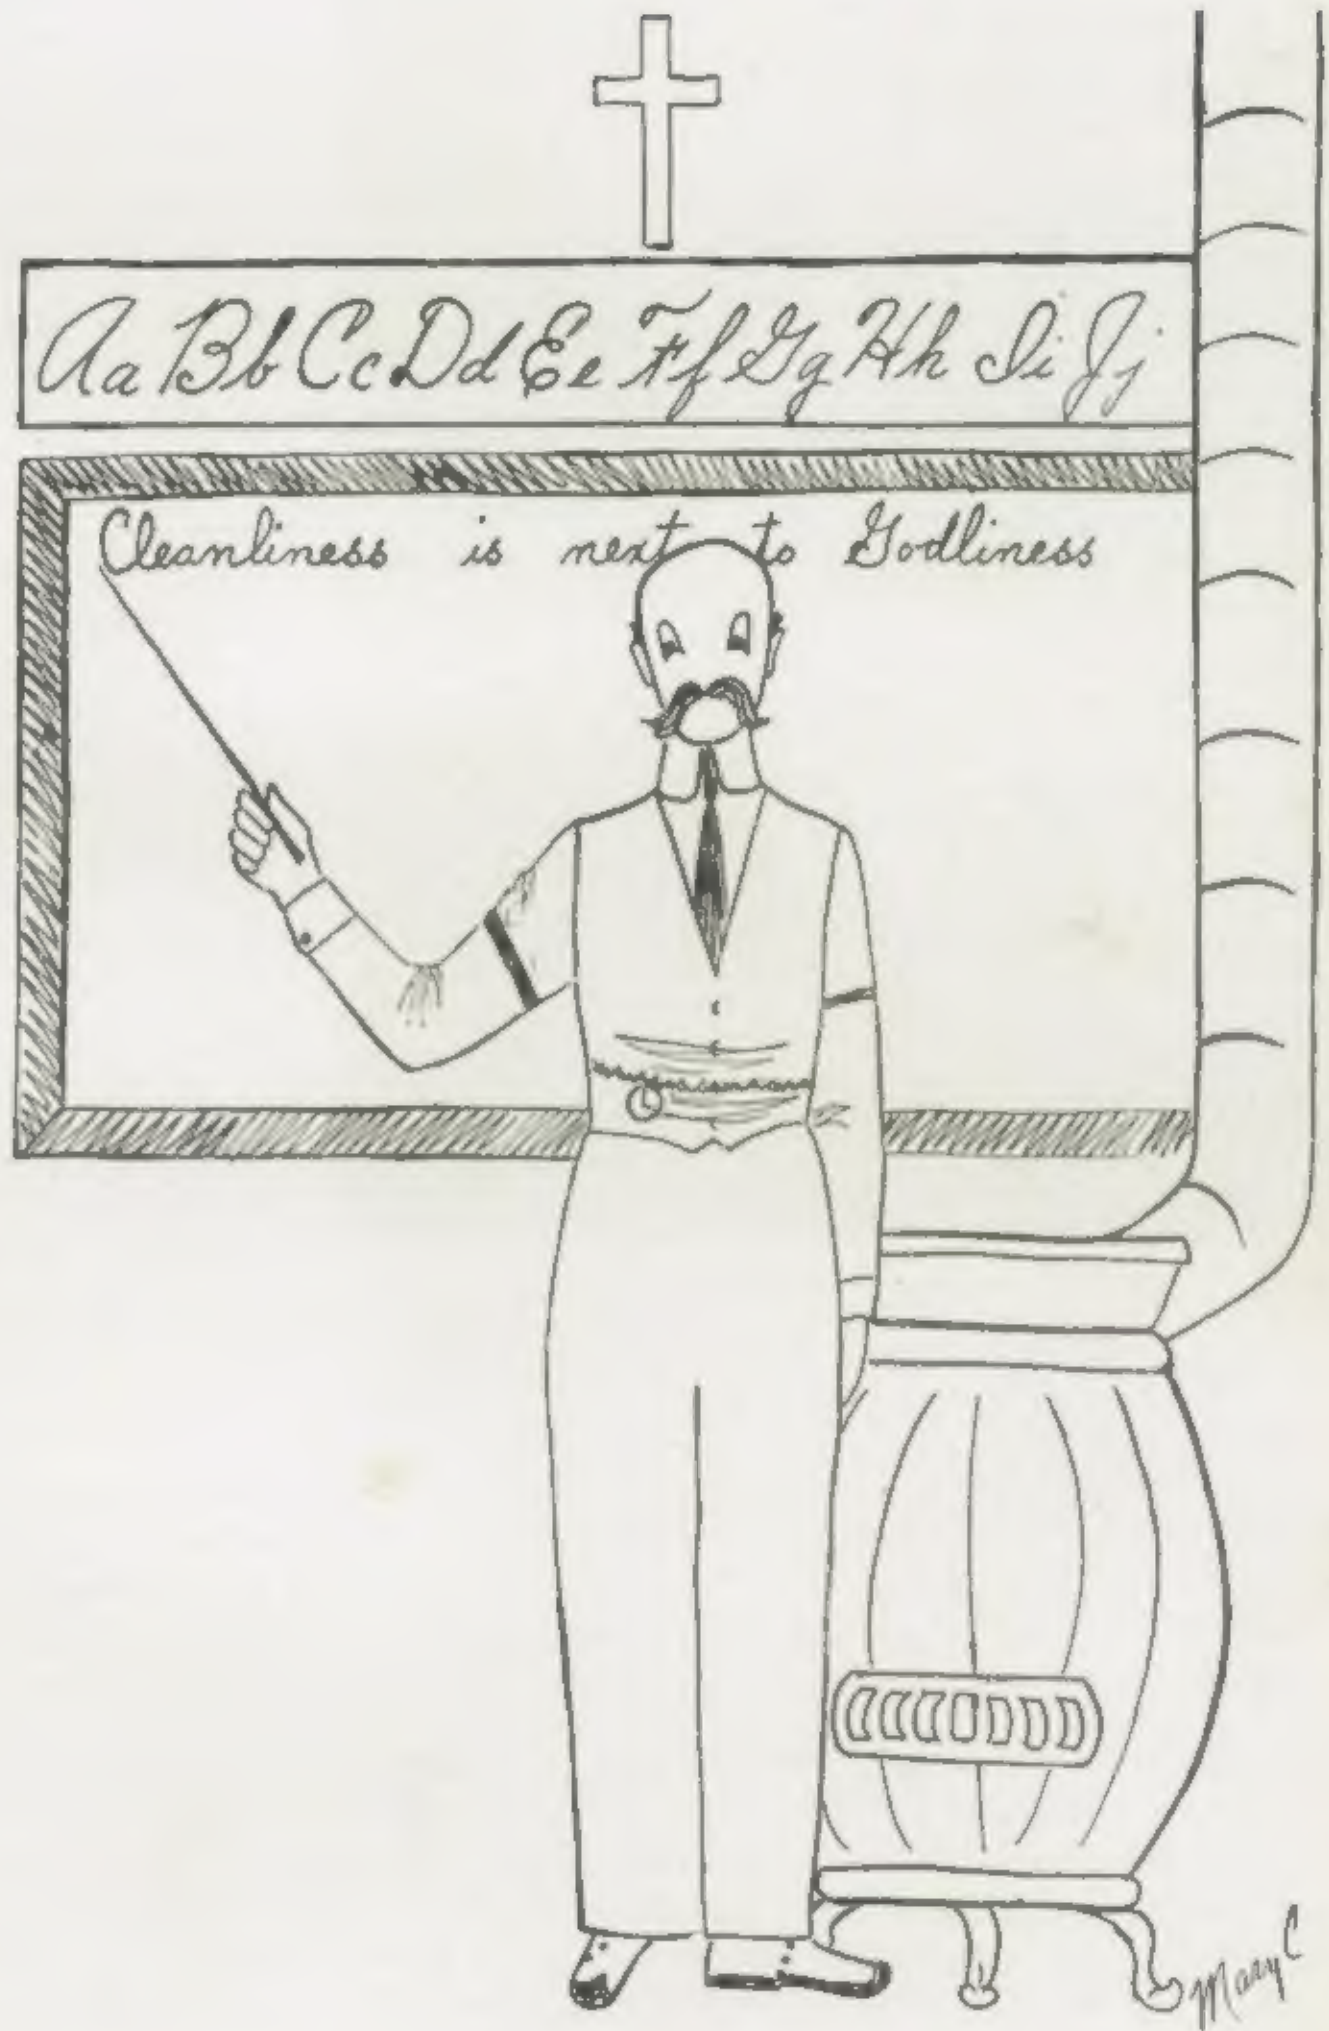

His Excellency
MOST REVEREND GEORGE J. REHRING, D.D.

Though the students at Calvert are a small part of Bishop Rehring's flock, they feel very happy that he honors them with his presence at their Graduation Exercises. They know that a Bishop has many duties and responsibilities and so they greatly appreciate the kindness of their own Bishop in following a precedent begun by Cardinal Stritch.

Even though the boys and girls of Calvert know their Bishop mainly through his letters to his people, they see in these letters a follower of Our Lord — a kind, considerate, ever watchful shepherd, a true lover of souls. As a shepherd guards his sheep, so Bishop Rehring guards his people.

The Calvert students pledge themselves to be true and loyal to their Bishop and sincerely thank him for his spiritual guidance.

Faculty

Principal

REV. JOSEPH D. SHENK, M.A., B.S.E.

Although burdened with the many duties of running a school, Father Shenk can always find time to help individual students with their personal problems. It doesn't take him long, in the beginning of each school year, to learn the name of each freshman. Always available, Father Shenk is deeply concerned with each person's welfare, and provides a safe shelter in the storms of school life.

Though the students' days are from 8:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m., Father's work isn't quite so short. Tackling the problems that are always present to beset a principal, he works from early until late. Nor do his labors cease with the advent of summer. Although the classrooms are silent during the vacation, Father's office is humming with activity. He must use this time to make out a schedule for each student for the coming year. Perhaps his tasks have been a little pleasanter this year, since they were carried out in a bright new school.

Remembering the many sacrifices Father has made and the countless hours he has spent to make their high school days happy and profitable ones, the student body will be forever grateful to their principal, Father Shenk.

REV. EDWARD C. DUNN, M.A.

Assistant Principal

There is someone at Calvert who is every student's friend. He has a knack for ironing out complications and can be counted on to listen enthusiastically to everything from the latest parties to the newest problems. At a cheer rally, the student body seems to catch some of his pep and boundless "Calvert Spirit."

Although in penalty period he is firm about correcting students' faults, and making them realize the necessity of co-operation and obedience, afterwards you often find him the center of a group of laughing, chattering students.

Calvert students feel that he is just like one of them. This is Father Dunn, our assistant principal.

Board of Fiscal Control

In the completed unit of Calvert High School, Monsignor Raphael I. Kinnane, pastor of St. Mary's and Monsignor Richard J. Gabel, pastor of St. Joseph's, behold the goal of their tireless effort and unflinching self-sacrifice.

We, the students, too, see the fruit of their labors and daily enjoy its benefits. If it were not for these priests and their generous parishioners, our priceless school would yet be nothing but a fantasy on paper.

To the pastors of our respective parishes we, the recipients of their good works, extend our sincerest appreciation and thanks for the opportunity to attend Calvert and to continue a Catholic education.

Both Monsignor Kinnane and Monsignor Gabel have a very personal interest in every student of Calvert. Each one is an individual with a soul destined for heaven. Their ambition and their desire is to develop each soul into a perfect mirror of Christ.

We are grateful to Msgr. Kinnane and Msgr. Gabel not only for their assistance in our trials and tribulations, but also for their kind encouragement.

Activities

With Father Walsh to guide them, the sophomore boys further explore the subject of Religion.

Calvert Library

Mary Lou Brady and Robert Mitten are attempting to enlarge their vocabulary.

In the background the Calvertiana co-editor, Thomas Zahn, is obtaining a book for an English assignment.

Barbara Leahy and Daniel Leahy, cousins, enjoy the musical thought of poetry and the precious jewels of a sonnet.

Paul Hemminger and Thomas Welter examine the very useful card catalogue as Michael McCroy and Robert Bish discover the wealth of information to be found in the library's reference books.

Religion Honor Roll

The Religion Honor Roll consists of all the seniors who have maintained, for four years, a B - average in Religion and character rating. This year, 27 seniors received the honor of being placed on this list.

From this number, Carol Patterson and Gerald Poignon were elected by the seniors and juniors to crown the Blessed Virgin; this is the most coveted honor of the four years at Calvert. Margaret Schira and Albert Hemminger carried the banners in the May ceremony.

The following are those who have earned a place on the Religion Honor Roll:

LaDonna Blust	Marilyn Mooney
Carolyn Boes	Carol Patterson
Hugo Bour	Josephine Patuto
Alice Buchman	Gerald Poignon
Gerald Buchman	James Reinman
Elaine Ecos	Alice Reiter
Joyce Ferrall	Jane Rumschlag
Sylvia Fisher	Joseph Sauber
Margaret Funkhouser	Margaret Schira
Jean Haefling	Marilyn Swope
Albert Hemminger	Paul VandeKerkhoff
Agnes Huss	Rose Ann Wagner
Patricia Milette	Jeanne Welter
Thomas Zahn

Scholastic Honor Roll

Those who have maintained at least a 90% average in all studies compose the Scholastic Honor Roll

The highest girl and the highest boy, Alice Reiter and Paul VandeKerkhoff, were the salutatorian and valedictorian of the class.

The students who have carried a 90% average through the four years are:

Alice Reiter	Mary Carpenter
Margaret Schira	Jane Rumschlag
Carol Patterson	Josephine Patuto
Paul VandeKerkhoff	Marilyn Swope
Margaret Funkhouser	Flaine Ecos
Marilyn Mooney	Carolyn Boes
Sylvia Fisher	Jeanne Welter
Albert Hemminger	Gerald Buchman
Hugo Bour

Science

Chemistry

To further the study of the chemistry of glass making, Margaret Deer exhibits a collection of fine glassware. The interested chemists are Alice Reiter, Albert Hemminger, Robert Leahy, Thomas Zahn, and Elaine Ecos.

Physics

Gerald Sanders demonstrates the complex operation of the pulleys. His audience includes John Englehart, Carol Kuehler, Barbara Welter, Janet Myers, and Patricia Benner.

Biology

Susan Unterbrink, Rita Werling, Hermine Leahy, Carolyn Schleiter, and Mary Omlor observe the delicate and fascinating structure of the flower.

Science

General Science

Herman Zoeller, James Ring, and Joseph Hunter, freshmen, explore science in our daily lives.

Mathematics

In the third year Math class, Mary Pahl and Shirley Renninger are plotting an equation in the study of quadratic functions.

Geometry

Lois Herbert and Thomas Huss are showing the class their skill in geometry by solving these originals. Mr. Diring, the instructor, stands at the right.

Languages

Inter Nos

Engrossed in the work of publishing the "Inter Nos" are the editors of Calvert's Latin magazine—Carol Patterson, Sylvia Fisher, Alice Reiter, Paul VandeKerkhoff, Margaret Funkhouser, Marilyn Mooney and Josephine Patuto.

Spanish

James Masella is explaining a date on the Spanish calendar to some of the other senior Spanish students: Rose Ann Wagner, Marcia Kistler, Dean Distel, Agnes Huss, and Elaine Ecos.

Latin

History

Ancient History

Marcia Chester quizzes the class on "The Guild System" to which Rebecca Jentgen has the explanation.

Government

Mr. Zalar explains the origin of our federal Constitution to the senior girls—his very attentive students.

Modern History

Mirabeau, portrayed by Paul Dunn, excites a mob during the French Revolution.

Commerce

Bookkeeping

These industrious accountants, now working with imaginary profits, will some day be our business men and business women.

Shorthand

Marjorie Warnement, Joanne Bentz, Ruth Holmer, and Irene Gaietto are demonstrating to the class the correct method of writing brief forms.

Typing

Senior typists, busily making their carbon copies, will be the alert secretaries in the near future.

Industrial Arts

Here Robert Kelbley, John Lutz, Gerald Buchman, and Louis Borer are busy sanding a bookcase.

Driving

Mr. Bowersox demonstrates to John Galton, Nancy Renninger, and Marjorie Warnement the mysteries of the clutch, brake, and accelerator, and the best and safest way to use them.

Mechanical Drawing

William Herbert, William Renninger, and James Poignon are discussing the centerline on a drawing. Thomas Shook, on the right, is inking his drawing.

Home Economics

Working in the new Home Ec room, Judette Shelt is sampling her custard, Carmella Perna and Patricia Patterson are taking fresh baked cookies from the oven, while Elaine Smith and Nancy Shultz are making a cake.

Cutting, measuring, or sewing to make themselves a new "spring outfit" are Sue Bridinger, Margaret Mueller, Rose Ann Wagner, Sara Grover, Janet Unterbrink.

English

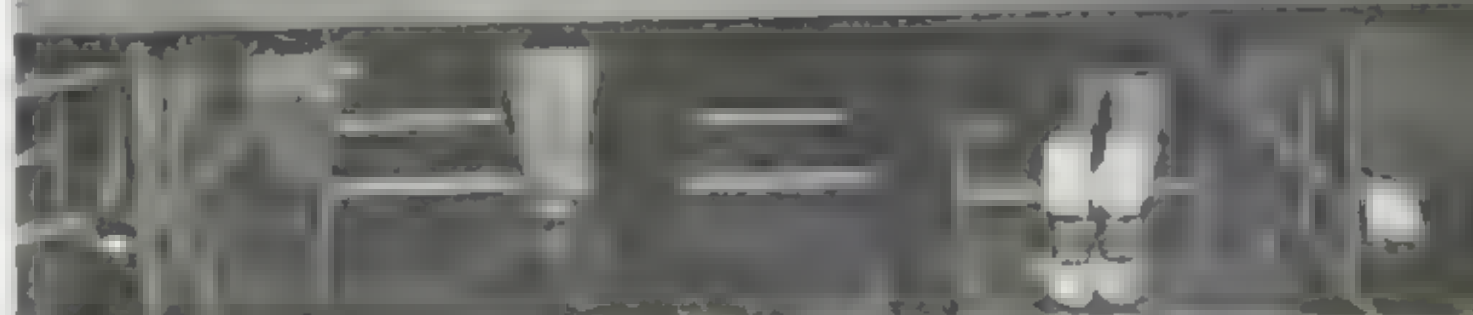

Mary Carpenter, the center of attraction, is discussing English literature with Patrick Leahy, Robert Ruskin, Elaine Ecos, and Carolyn McGowan.

Conducting a Student Council meeting according to parliamentary procedure, are Roger Welter, treasurer; Albert Hemminger, president; Father Shenk, adviser; Carolyn Boes, vice president; and Mary Pahl, secretary.

Winners of the C.Y.O. Essay Contest—Judette Gase, Paul Dunn, Martha Carpenter, and Alice Reiter—are listening to Anne Wade, whose essay won first prize.

Calvert News

Co-editors and Associate Editors

Striving to maintain an All Catholic rating are the co-editors, Margaret Funkhouser and Joseph Miglion, and the associate editors Margaret Schira, Robert Leahy, Alice Reiter, Gail Borer, Jeanne Welter, Mary Carpenter, Carol Patterson, Michael Maiberger and Mary McClellan.

News Writers

Covering happenings in and around Calvert are these hard-working reporters of the first page staff. It is their job to plan and write the first and fourth pages.

Sports and Alumni Staff

Busily preparing their contributions for the paper are the members of the sports and the alumni staffs.

Feature Writers

Because of this staff's criticism, compliment, and weighty discussions, there comes a well-written and interesting feature page.

Mailing Staff

The intriguing system of preparing the Calvert News for the nail is well under control in the enthusiastic hands of this staff.

Typing, Circulation, Photography

Getting the paper out on time is the result of accurate typing, on-the-spot photography, and rapid circulation - all expertly handled by this experienced group.

MARGARET SCHIRA

THOMAS ZAHN

Calvertana

As a lasting remembrance of Calvert, the graduating class of '55 proudly presents its Calvertana, a symbol of days never-to-be-forgotten.

This yearbook represents the time, thoughts, hardwork and the many happy memories of the senior class.

To aid the seniors in the difficult task of pasting pictures, doing the senior write-ups and supervising the many other small, sometimes overlooked details, the co-editors, Thomas Zahn and Margaret Schira, spent many an hour helping to make the '55 yearbook worthy of the name Calvertana.

Managing the Calvertana subscription drive the business managers, Joyce Ferrall and Dean Distel are proudly accepting returns from the two top teams Team 29, composed of Robert Leahy, Ray Singleton and Gene Hohman, contributed $155.00 and Team 19 Donald Flechtner and Joseph Migliori, $124.50

Seniors Present 'All in the Family'

A lively group of teenagers discuss the question, "Are Parents People?" Those taking part are Carolyn McGowan, Albert Hemminger, Margaret Funkhouser, Carol Dryfuse, and Thomas Zahn.

"Are you positive George is a genius?" exclaims his father. The social studies teacher, Rita Seislove, has just informed Mary Ellen Meier and Philip Falter that their son is a genius with an I.Q. of 143.

The photographer, Richard Roy, snaps the family spending a quiet evening at home. Members of the family are Mary Ellen Meier, Philip Falter, Robert Leahy, Jeanne Welter, Thomas Zahn. An intrusive neighbor, Harold Braciak, is pictured with the family.

Glee Club

First Row: Carol Kuhn, Margaret Miller, Helen Succione, Irene Galletto, Jean Haelling, Patricia Millett, Barbara Walter, Jeannette Lutz, Margaret Immele

Second Row: Nancy Smith, Lois Herbert, Shirley Rogala, Paul Vand-Kerkhoff, Daniel Fullerton, Mary Ellen Wangler, Karen Cramer, Carol Kuebler

Third Row: Constance Kimmel, Mary Brady, Nancy Fischer, Thomas Shook, Richard Roy, Mary Carpenter, Betty Seibert, Carol Stab

During the two years that Mr. Bowersox has been director of the Band and Glee Club he has given the school a big boost

Not everyone realizes the time, effort, and energy needed merely to run a Band. Mr. Bowersox has done more. He has improved the Band. The maestro has instilled his spirit, not only into the Band members, but into every student at Calvert.

Mr. Bowersox has done all this with never-failing patience and a sense of humor. He has been equally ready to joke with his students, or give them serious help. For all this, we want to thank you, Mr. B

Majorette

The position of head majorette was capably filled by our talented baton twirler, Claranne Nigh, senior.

Majorettes

Calvert's high strutting majorettes are: Sylvia Omlor, junior, Claranne Nigh, senior, and Carol Fisher, sophomore.

Calvert Band

Keeping the Band in perfect rythmn are David Molyett, Thomas Shook, Georgianne Bland, Karen Cramer, Joyce Ferrail, and Carol Drytuse.

Adding the high notes are Carolyn Boes, Marilyn Swope, and Mary McClellan playing flutes and Margaret Funkhouser on the piccolo.

Calvert Band

Bringing smooth and mellow tones from the saxophones are: Rita Seislova, Carol Kuebler, Mary Carpenter, Mary Ellen Wangler, Jacqueline Rex, and Margaret Deer.

Contributing the umpa-pas are: Mary Jane Blust, Ruth Rumschlag, Mary Ellen Meier, Lois Herbert, Donald Barrick, Paul Vande Kerkhoff, and Geraldine Schetter.

Putting in the fancy runs on the clarinets are: Barbara Leahy, Agnes Welter, Rita Grieselding, Jane Rumschlag, Eugenia Welter, Vivian Werner, Regina Werling, Ruth Kummerer, Martha Carpenter, Ann Klopp, Judy Traunero, Nancy Fischer, Carol Staib, Richard Roy, Jeannette Kleinhenz, Betty Seifert, and Gary Croy.

Candid Shots

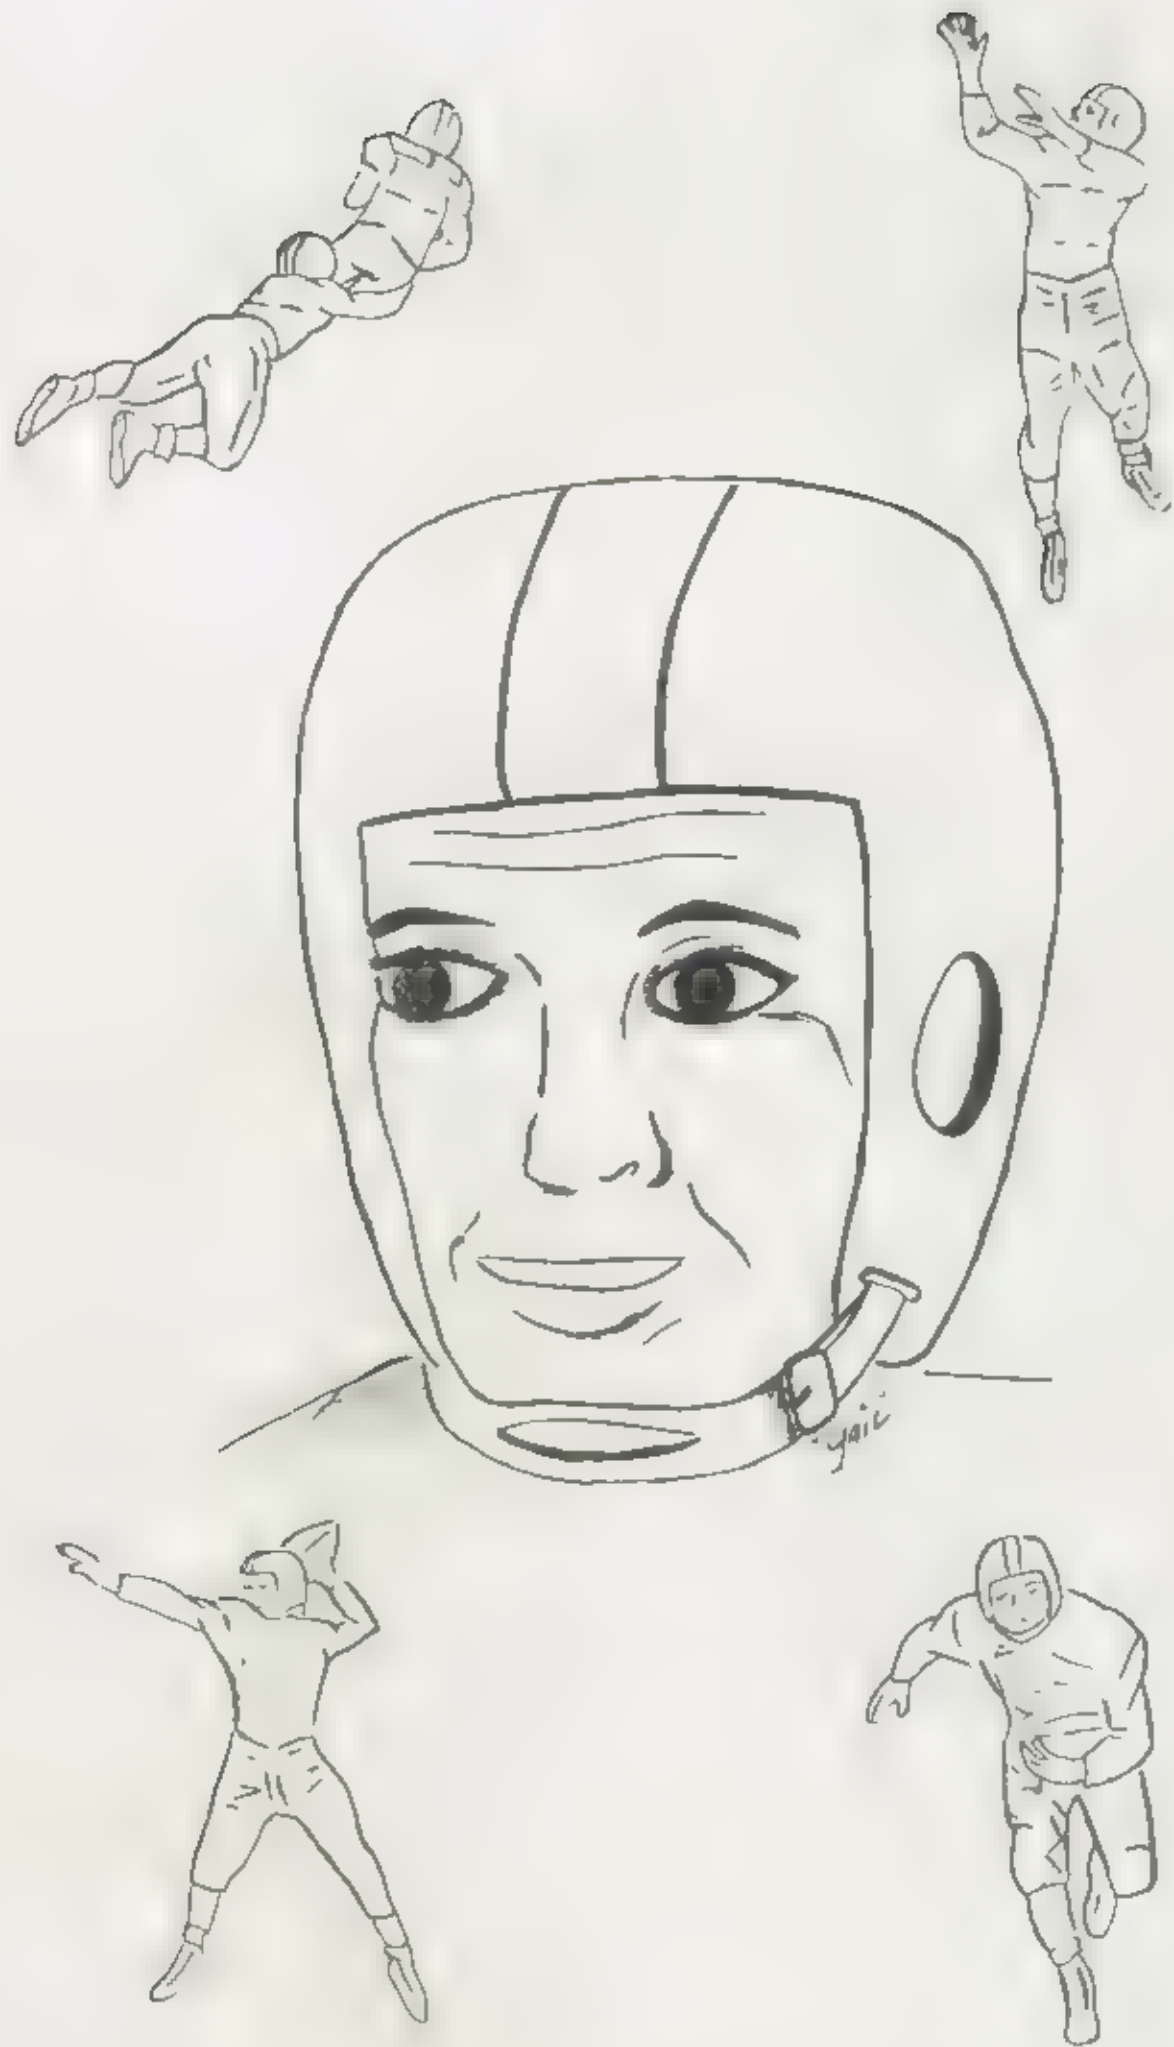

Enjoying the senior class party are Dean Distel, Donna Blust, Gerald Buchman, Rita Seislove, Joseph Scherger, Philip Falter, Robert Leahy, and Gail Borer.

Paul VandeKerkhoff, Irma Jean Baugher, Phyllis Rumschlag, and Robert Behm inspect the geology collection.

Michael Maiberger is introducing the football team: Michael Wagner, Daniel Fullerton, Salvatore Paradiso, Roger Welter, James Seifert, Robert Leahy, James Fullerton, Philip Falter, Joseph Migliori, John Lutz, Thomas Zahn, and James Masella.

Father Dunn enthusiastically rouses school spirit by leading a cheer before the Calvert-Columbian football game.

Sports

MR. KARL ZALAR

MR. JOSEPH KUKOY

Senecas' Sport Mentors

During his six years at Calvert, 'Zip' Zalar, head coach, has had a glorious career. In football, he has won more than 60% of his games and has surpassed this mark in basketball.

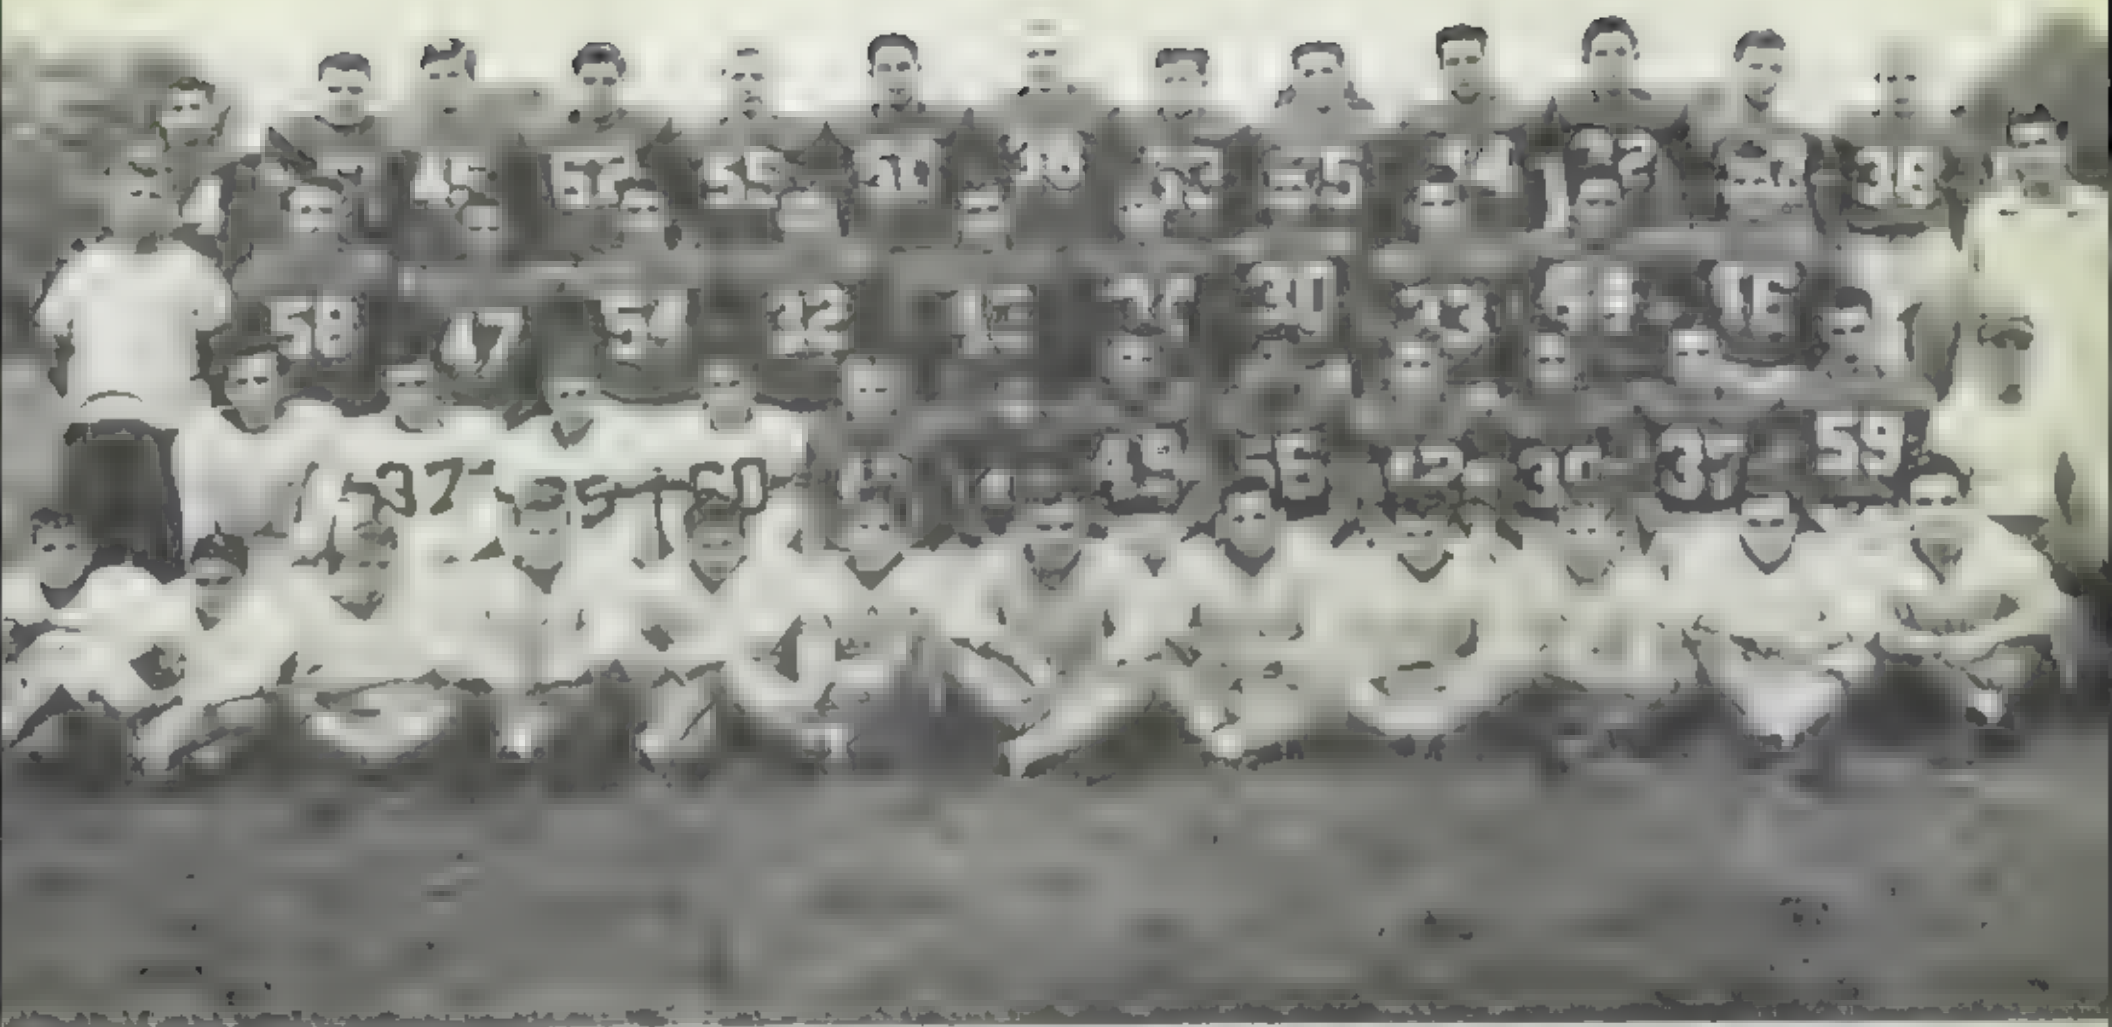

In particular Zip has gained the admiration of his gridders and cagers. The head coach handles his squads well, always gives credit where credit is due, and understands the strengths and weaknesses of his lads. Through his tireless efforts he has helped to put Calvert at the head of the class in these activities.

Assisting Mr. Zalar as reserve squad basketball coach and as backfield football coach is Mr. Joseph Kukoy, now completing his second year as a member of the Seneca staff. Throughout the duration of these two years, Joe has won the admiration of the athletes.

Cheerleaders

With a "Rah! rah! rah!" and "Sis boom bah," Sue Mitten, Helen Buccione, Charlotte Amlin, and Gail Borer led the student body in yells and cheers at football and basketball games and at various rallies of the year.

First Row: Michael McCarty, Pasquale Patuto, Timothy O'Daniel, Joseph Miner, Kenneth Katcher, Gorman Farley, James M. Newry, David Salslove, John Amlin, Paul Boen, David Krupp, James Ring.
 Second Row: Daniel Leahy, William Zait, Eugene Seimetz, George Graham, James Poirson, Richard Dandurand, Daniel Fullerton, Salvatore Paradiso, Roger Walter, Michael Wagner, John Leahy, John Galton, Coach Jack Omlor.
 Third Row: Coach Ken Zait, James Masella, Joseph Scherger, John Lutz, Philip Falter, Anthony San Gregory, Richard Bernard, James Dryfuss, Edward Ferstler, Daniel Colatruglio, Thomas Huss, Coach Joseph Kukoy.

'54 Grid Season

The Seneca squad finished the gridiron season with a 2-6 record. Although there were more losses than wins, the gridgers carried on the main purpose of athletics—to build strong character and to show manly sportsmanship.

Calvert's first win came over Holland with an impressive 25-7 victory. The other victory was over Lima St. Rose; it was a rugged game which the Senecas won 14-7. The decisions the Senecas dropped were: Toledo Clay 34-14, Kenton 20-14, Columbian 27-7, Fremont 34-20, Port Clinton 25-19, and Sandusky 20-19.

The senior lettermen who played their last game against Columbian were: John Lutz, James Masella, James Fullerton, James Seifert, Joseph Scherger, Thomas Zahn, Patrick Leahy, Joseph Migliori, Robert Leahy and Philip Falter.

Philip Falter received the Most Valuable Player award for his outstanding defensive work. On offense he showed his terrific speed both on the line and in the backfield.

Co-Captain awards went to Joseph Migliori and Robert Leahy. Although Migliori missed the last two games, the previous ones showed his ability as a fullback. Robert Leahy won his award by his constant ruggedness at the tackle position.

Daniel Moran, Daniel Fullerton, David Stevenson, and Edward Ferstler were the main underclass players. The opposition felt their ruggedness.

The Seneca gridiron machine has many promising prospects. They are: juniors: James Poirson, David Stevenson, Michael Wagner, and Roger Walter, and sophomores: Daniel Moran, Daniel Fullerton, Richard Dandurand, and Edward Ferstler.

Seneca cagers of 1954-1955, who reached the semi-finals in the Class A Tournament, were David Stevenson, Philip Falter, Joseph Migliori, Robert Leahy, Daniel Moran, Eugene Hohman, Joseph Scherger, Michael Maiberger, Roger William Black, Michael Wagner.

Basketball Review

Although not as successful as in years gone by, the Seneca cagers displayed a superabundance of spirit and sportsmanship in their efforts to gain fame for Calvert. In winning five of their fifteen games, the squad chalked up an average of 59 points a game for a grand total of 889 points.

However the students of Calvert High will always remember Joe Migliori, Phil Falter, Joe Scherger, Bob Leahy, Gene Hohman, and Mike Maiberger, seniors, whom Calvert will lose through graduation. These boys played a hard, fast game and spent many hours in practice, but not in vain, as they found a place in the hearts of their many fans.

The high point honors were shared by Joe Migliori, guard with 218 points; Dan Moran, sophomore center who will undoubtedly go even farther in the years to come, second, with 207 points, and Phil Falter, guard, rounded up 206 points.

In the Class A Tournaments the Zalarmen beat Port Clinton in the first game by a score of 74-68 and went on to the semi-finals only to be beaten by the Norwalk Truckers in a heart-breaking thriller 70-68.

Senior Cagers

Better known to all as 'Sugar', this talented lad of the basketball floor, was tops in team spirit. He had a way of building up steam in the last seconds of the game. More than once 'Joe' came forth to save the day. He finished the season with 134 points to his credit.

Because of Gene's great jumping ability for rebounds, he was nicknamed 'Kangaroo'. His great shots off his hips and his sportsmanship on and off the hardwood will always be remembered by the squad. Gene finished the season with a 7 point average per game.

'Mig', our 6 foot guard, led the scoring column in the '54-'55 season with a grand total of 218 points. With his accurate shots from mid-floor, Joe was always there to raise that score. Here's a lad Calvert will never forget in the many years to come.

Sometimes known as 'Teabags', Mike was an asset to the team. His good humor and team spirit never failed when the team needed a boost. In the eyes of the cagers and the students, Mike Maiberger was a great morale builder.

'Crash', the name given to him by his teammates, is the Irish lad who gave spark to the team. When the spirits were down, he always raised their hopes and boosted them on. When the crowd gave out with that "Take it! take it away!" he was there to oblige.

Known to most of the students as 'Red', with his hard running and his fast-dribbling, Phil did his part on the hardwood. His ability to dump the ball when the ball needed dumping will always be remembered by the Senecas fans. Ending the season, Phil had a total of 206 points.

1954 - 1955 Alumni News

More than 600 members of the Calvert Alumni and their families attended the annual Reunion held in the new building on the first Sunday after graduation. The afternoon was spent informally, the chief attraction was the newly completed addition to the school.

Officers of the association represented the Alumni at a High Mass celebrated by Father Shenk in the Ursuline Chapel on Sunday morning. The Mass was offered for the living and deceased members of the Alumni Association. Father Shenk also presided at Benediction in the afternoon.

Members of the classes of 1927 and 1947 renewed old memories with a picnic at Hedger Boyer Park and a dance at the Bel-Aire Club.

OFFICERS ELECTED

Alumni officers elected at the annual reunion were Patrick Dell, president, Mrs. Edmund Kuebler, vice president, Gene Phillips, treasurer, and Margaret Mary Kramer, secretary.

ALUMNI ACTIVITIES

The Alumni inaugurated as a permanent project for the association the contributing annually of a sum of money to the school to be used as a library fund. During the past year, the association also made an additional fund available for letters to be selected by Father Shenk.

On the occasion of the elevation of Calvert's first principal, Father Gallagher, to the rank of Domestic Prelate, a spiritual bouquet and a bagia were presented to Msgr. Gallagher, on behalf of the alumni who attended Calvert during those years he spent building the reputation the school is so fortunate to possess today.

SUMMER DANCE

Charles Hasler and his orchestra provided the music for over 300 alumni and their guests at the traditional summer dance at Meadowbrook Ballroom, September 4, 1954. Father Sheen, Father Dunn, and Father Dobmeyer were their special guests.
